COMMENTS: Carla Sigler and Michael Bergeron request an untimely waiver and states the following: Mr. Bergeron did not originally receive the fine assessment letter until right after the two hurricanes hit. Once he did, the deadline for filing to dispute or appeal this assessment had already run. At that time, Mr. Bergeron was spending the first three (3) weeks running a distribution site at a local church in Westlake, Louisiana helping to give away supplies and over 75,000 meals to needy people, organizing and doing all of this with his wife, Brittney. Between Hurricane Laura on August 26, 2020 and Hurricane Delta on October 5, 2020, both of which devastated our area and caused significant damages to both Mr. Bergeron and him (and both Mr. Bergeron and him having COVID-19), we were confused on what was sent by whom.

Re: Late fee assessment for the October 12, 2019
Election for Mr. Michael Bergeron

Dear Ms. Horn:

On behalf of Mr. Bergeron and me, let me start by apologizing for the delay in this letter. There was a miscommunication between us where I thought the response letter you and I previously discussed via my phone call of inquiry was already sent by Mr. Bergeron. Between Hurricane Laura on August 26, 2020 and Hurricane Delta on October 5, 2020, both of which devastated our area and caused significant damages to both Mr. Bergeron and me (and both Mr. Bergeron and me having COVID-19), we were confused on what was sent by whom. We both sincerely apologize for the delay.

By way of this letter, Mr. Bergeron respectfully requests a waiver of the late fee assessment for his October 12, 2019 election.

Mr. Bergeron did not originally receive the fine assessment letter until right after the two hurricanes hit. Once he did, the deadline for filing to dispute or appeal this assessment had already run. At that time, Mr. Bergeron was spending the first three (3) weeks running a distribution site at a local church in Westlake, Louisiana helping to give away supplies and over 75,000 meals to needy people, organizing and doing all of this with his wife, Brittney.

Mr. Bergeron has multiple mitigating factors to support his waiver request. To begin with, Mr. Bergeron's election to replace a deceased Westlake City Council member was a special election which occurred on October 12, 2019. One mitigating factor was Mr. Bergeron's misunderstanding as a lay person and first-time candidate that a November of 2019 report was required of him, since his election was finished on October 12, 2019 when he won the Westlake City Council seat without any run-off.

Justice You Can Trust

Mr. Bergeron, who works as Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) at Cameron Parish Emergency Medical Services, does not earn sufficient income to have been able to hire an Accounting or Campaign Finance Manager for this election, which was his first run for political office. Mr. Bergeron also donates his Westlake City Council member check to charity every month.

Mr. Bergeron handled all of the campaign finance reports himself, and he was confused at the requirements. He sincerely attempted to comply with all of the campaign finance rules.

Mr. Bergeron's wife, Brittney, is a stay-at-home mother who had just given birth to their second child Riverlyn, right before his election. In addition, they had just spent their savings so that Mr. Bergeron could adopt Brittney's daughter, Adalyn. His personal savings were depleted in that expensive court proceeding, and are still minimal due to the current state of our devastated area.

Mr. Bergeron is currently still repairing his home from the damage caused by two hurricanes, and his hurricane deductibles from his insurance company are substantial. Many repair costs to make his home habitable again and to restore it are coming out of his own pocket.

Mr. Bergeron's ability to review his notes and copies of his campaign finance reports to respond to the late fee letter is also greatly hindered by the loss of his filing records in the hurricanes. Mr. Bergeron obtained the copies of his filings that are attached to this letter from the Campaign Finance website.

As the attached reports from Mr. Bergeron's campaign reveal (see Exhibit A in globo), all financial information in the reports is the same, so there were no additional expenses or income to report in the delayed reports, which were all for the same November 2019 election.

Mr. Bergeron sincerely apologizes for the delay occasioned in this case, and he respectfully seeks a waiver of his late fee assessment.

If anything further is needed from Mr. Bergeron, please do not hesitate to contact either of us. We both appreciate your professional courtesies and assistance in this matter.
